Policies

Thank you for reading and honoring these policies. You must sign this form prior to receiving massage therapy.

1. Please do your best to arrive clean.
2. Non Sexual Massage Therapy: The Dragonfly Massage Studio is providing professional massage therapy which is non sexual. If any client demonstrates any kind of inappropriate behavior, or initiates any inappropriate conversation or gestures toward the therapists, this will be considered sexual harassment and the massage will end immediately, full payment will be due.
3. All conversations and personal information will be held in the strictest of confidence.
4. Any advice given to you is only advice and not a medical diagnosis.
5. If during your massage a symptom is discovered that massage is not suited to help with, you will be referred to a doctor.
6. Please communicate with your therapist what ever needs to be modified to improve your massage; be it temperature of the room, music selection or volume, area being addressed, depth or pace of massage, or if you would like to talk or be silent. The goal is for you to be happy with your experience, so feel free to talk.
7. As there are many reactions that can arise out of receiving deeper bodywork, you will be educated so you know what you can expect during and after a massage.
8. If you are sick with an infection of any kind, please call and reschedule your massage.
9. Your privacy will be honored at all times. You will have the room to yourself while disrobing and getting dressed. During your massage, you will always be covered with a drape. Only the area being addressed will be temporarily uncovered. Clothing under the drape is optional and your decision to make. Your preference will be discuss at your initial consultation. If you are not bashful, please be respectful to the therapist, and remain under the drape at all times during your massage.
10. If you are more than 15 minutes late, your massage will be modified so the therapist may remain on schedule.
11. If you need to cancel or reschedule your massage, please give as much notice as possible.
12. Gift Certificates, Treatment Packages and other special offers are honored for 6 months from date of purchase
13. Payment in full is required upon each session in the form of Check or Cash or Credit Card.
